Data Controller

Marmara Cam Sanayi ve Ticaret Anonim Şirketi (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”)

Cookies are small data files placed on your computer by a web server through your browser. Websites use cookies to recognize you when a connection is established between your browser and the server. Cookies are designed to make websites more user-friendly for visitors.

There are four types of cookies based on their intended use: Session Cookies, Performance Cookies, Functional Cookies, and Advertising & Third-Party Cookies. On this Website, we only use session, membership, IBAN, email, contact information, and performance cookies. Session cookies are temporary cookies stored on the user's computer until they leave the Marmara Cam Sanayi ve Ticaret Anonim Şirketi Website. Persistent cookies remain on the user's computer until they are deleted by the user. The lifespan of cookies may vary depending on the user's browser settings.

Type of Cookie	Function of the Cookie
Session Cookies	These cookies are necessary for the proper functioning of the Website. They enable access to and use of the Website's features. They are also used to transfer information between different pages and to prevent users from having to re-enter information multiple times.
Performance Cookies	These cookies collect data such as frequency of visits, error messages (if any), time spent on pages, and how users navigate the website. This information can be used to improve website performance.
Functional Cookies	The Company may use cookies to facilitate the use of its website, platforms, applications, and services, and to customize them for users. These cookies may remember user information and preferences, and provide enhanced online features.
Advertising & Third-Party Cookies	These cookies may be used to deliver advertisements and similar content based on users' interests via the Company's or third parties' websites, platforms, and applications. For example, cookies that measure ad effectiveness or track ad views or clicks.

Notice:

Most browsers are initially set to automatically accept cookies. Browsers can be configured to block cookies or to notify the user when a cookie is being sent to their device. Cookie management may vary from browser to browser. Therefore, please refer to your browser's help menu for more information. Disabling cookies may prevent use of some features of the Company's website, application, platform, or services.

Can data subjects block the use of cookies?

You have the ability to customize your cookie preferences by modifying your browser settings.

We may receive assistance from authorized service providers for the operation and promotion of our website, platform, applications, and services. These service providers may place cookies and similar technologies (third-party cookies) on users' computers/devices and collect data such as IP address, unique identifiers, and device identifiers.

Our websites, platforms, and applications may contain links to third-party websites, products, and services. These links are subject to the privacy policies of those third parties, and it should be noted that these third parties and their websites are independent of the Company. The Company is not responsible for the privacy practices of third parties. When visiting linked websites, we recommend that you review their privacy policies.

The Company is obliged to log visitors' IP addresses and timestamps (visit times) under Law No. 5651. These data are securely retained for 2 years due to legal obligations and may be shared with authorized public institutions and organizations when necessary. Therefore, your data is processed in a limited manner based on subparagraphs (ç) and (f) of Article 5(2) of the Law on the Protection of Personal Data No. 6698.
